DETAILED ACTION

This application is a continuation-in-part of US application No. 09/205,281.

1. Claims 8-14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in Paper No. 7.

2. Applicant's election with traverse of group I, claims 1-7 in Paper No. 7 is acknowledged.

The traversal is on the ground(s) that search of all the invention is not seen as an undue burden.

This is not found persuasive because the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Double Patenting Rejections

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-7 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 7-16 of U.S. Patent No. 6,458,371. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 7-16 of '371 are direct to method for reducing the incidence of "photoaging process of skin." The "photoaging process of skin" is generic to actinic keratosis, i.e., actinic keratosis is a photoaging process of skin. Further, "photoaging process of skin" is a small genus, which only includes a few other symptoms, i.e., wrinkling, elastosis and pigment alternation. Therefore, the instant claims for preventing actinic keratosis would be obvious to claims 7-16 of '371.

Claims Rejections 35 U.S.C. 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for preventing actinic keratosis (see page 8 in the specification), does not reasonably provide enablement for treating actinic keratosis. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

7. Applicant's specification discloses how certain the method thereof may be employed for preventing actinic keratosis. See again pages 8 therein. The specification contains no working examples showing how any further the method may be employed for treating actinic keratosis. The application lacks suggestion, direction, or guidance as to how the method would be useful for treating actinic keratosis. For examples, any UV blocking agents may be useful for preventing photoaging, or actinic keratosis. However, it would have been unreasonable to expect any of those UV blocking agents to be useful for reversing the damage of skin by UV.
